EDDIE CHILES
Chairman of the Board
Chief Executive Officer

Eddie Chiles purchased the Texas Rangers Baseball Club on April 29, 1980, and has served as Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer since that time.

Mr. Chiles is an excellent example of the American Free Enterprise System. He is Chairman of the Board of the Western Company of North America, a business he founded 45 years ago in Seagraves, Texas, with three employees and two trucks. The Western Company, which serves the petroleum industry with technical knowledge and operations required in the discovery and production of oil and gas, now employs more than 5,000 people worldwide.

The Western Company also performs contract drilling operations offshore with submersible drilling vessels and jackup rigs in the North Sea, the Gulf of Alaska, the Gulf of Mexico, the Mediterranean Sea, the Arabian Gulf, and off the coast of western Africa.

Once employed as a merchant seaman earning $29.50 a month, Mr. Chiles' first indoctrination in the oil industry was working as a roughneck and a roustabout in the Texas oil fields. He later hitchhiked to the University of Oklahoma and worked his way through the University, receiving a degree in petroleum engineering.

Mr. Chiles has been widely honored for his leadership and accomplishments and has been actively involved in a number of civic and charitable activities on both the local and national level.

MICHAEL H. STONE
President
Chief Operating Officer

Mike Stone was named President and Chief Operating Officer of the Texas Rangers on November 1, 1983. He is responsible for all aspects of the Texas Rangers organization and reports directly to club owner Eddie Chiles.

Prior to joining the Rangers, Mike served as assistant to John Fanning, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Western Company of North America. In that capacity, he designed training and development programs for senior executives of the Western Company.

He was previously involved with the Rangers in November, 1982, when he chaired a series of top management meetings for the ballclub. He continued to serve as a management consultant during the 1983 season before joining the Rangers fulltime.

Mike is a graduate of Albion College and holds two graduate degrees from the University of Michigan. As an undergraduate at Albion, he earned seven varsity letters in athletics and was an all-conference football player.

He and his wife, Ellen, reside in Fort Worth with Ellen's children, Matt (12) and Kristen (11). Mike's daughters, Laura (20) and Allison (18) live in California.

THOMAS A. GRIEVE
Vice President
General Manager

Tom Grieve was appointed Vice President and General Manager of the Texas Rangers on September 1, 1984, when at the age of 36, he became the youngest person in baseball to hold that position. It was the culmination of Tom's rise through the ranks of the franchise, which began when he was selected by the Washington Senators in the October, 1966 free agent draft.

His first off-season in the General Manager's post was a busy one, as he signed free agents Burt Hooton, Cliff Johnson, and Dave Rozema and negotiated the deal that brought catcher Don Slaught from Kansas City to Texas.

Tom has spent nearly 18 of his 19 seasons in professional baseball with the Washington/Texas organization. He was the Senators' first round pick in that October, 1966, free agent draft after an outstanding high school career in his hometown of Pittsfield, Massachusetts.

The righthanded hitting outfielder had been in the minor leagues just three and a half years when he debuted with the Senators in July, 1970. He spent the 1971 campaign at Denver before joining the new Texas Rangers in 1972. Tom played for Texas from 1972 thru 1977 and ranks high on the Rangers' all-time list in home runs (5th, 60), games (8th, 560), rbi (9th, 236), extra base hits (10th, 136), and total bases (10th, 692). His best season was 1976, when he was the club's "player of the year" and set career highs with 20 homers and 81 rbi.

He was traded to the New York Mets in December, 1977, and was acquired by the St. Louis Cardinals in December, 1978. Tom started the 1979 season with the Cardinals but was released in May. He signed with Texas' class AAA affiliate at Tucson for the remainder of that season before retiring as an active player. He has a lifetime major league average of .249 with 65 homers and 254 rbi in 670 games.

Tom joined the Rangers' front office as Director of Group Sales in 1980 and became Assistant Director of Player Development the following year. He was promoted to Director of Player Development after the 1982 season and directed the club's minor league operations for two seasons before becoming General Manager.

Born in Pittsfield, MA on March 4, 1948, Tom lives in Arlington, TX, with his wife, Kathy and their three children, Tim (13), Ben (8), and Kate (7).

LARRY SCHMITTOU
Vice President
Marketing and Administration

Larry Schmittou joined the Texas Rangers as Vice-President of Marketing in February, 1983 and added the title of Vice-President for Administration in November, 1983. He oversees the clubs' entire marketing and sales effort as well as all stadium operations.

Larry came to the Rangers after a successful career on the minor league level. He has served as General Partner and President of the Nashville Sounds Baseball Club since October, 1977, and was Nashville's General Manager before joining the Rangers. The Sounds are beginning their first season at the class AAA level as the Detroit Tigers' International League affiliate after averaging more than 500,000 people per season over the last seven years in the class AA Southern League.

He is also President and Chief Executive Officer of the Greensboro Hornets (South Atlantic League), Huntsville Stars (Southern League), Daytona Beach Islanders (Florida State League), and Evansville Triplets, which will begin operation in the Midwest League in 1986.

Larry has also had success in the coaching ranks. He was head baseball coach and head football recruiter at Vanderbilt University from March, 1968 through January, 1979. In that span, his baseball clubs had a won-lost record of 305-220 and captured two Southeastern Conference championships and five Eastern Division titles. He was named the SEC's "coach of the year" in 1973 and 1974.

He served as head basketball coach and assistant football coach at Goodlettsville High School from 1965-68 and head football and basketball coach at Bailey Junior High School from 1962-65 in the Nashville school system. During that time, he was also coaching winning baseball teams as his Babe Ruth, American Legion, and Connie Mack clubs went to seven different World Series and won over 500 games between 1957 and 1969. Larry was also a scout for the Cleveland Indians from 1965-68.

He is a two-time recipient of the Larry MacPhail Award (1978 and 1980), was The Sporting News class AA and Southern League "executive of the year" in 1980, and the Nashville Banner "man of the year" in 1971 and 1978.

CHARLES F. WANGNER
Vice President-Finance
Secretary-Treasurer

Charles Wangner has been with the Washington-Texas franchise from its inception when the expansion Senators were formed in 1961. He is in his 25th year with the ballclub.

He oversees the Rangers' entire financial operation and also added the additional duties as the club's Secretary in 1984.

A 1956 graduate of the University of Maryland, Charlie went to work for the accounting firm of Arthur Andersen and Company in Washington, D.C. In December, 1960, he was selected by the firm to establish the accounting system for the expansion Washington Senators. Three months later, in February, 1961, he was named Controller of the club. He was appointed Assistant Treasurer in 1969, added the title of Assistant Treasurer-Business Affairs in 1973, and was promoted to Treasurer in 1980.

Charlie and his wife Nancy Lynne, have four children, Chuck (24), Judy (21), Jeannie (20), and Robert (15). The family resides in Arlington.

BILL ZEIGLER—TRAINER

Bill Zeigler was appointed trainer of the then Washington Senators prior to the 1970 season and has served in that capacity for the Senators and Rangers since that time. In that span, he has missed just two of the 2,358 regular season games that the Washington/Texas franchise has played. A graduate of Florida State University in Tallahassee, Bill served as assistant trainer there for two and a half years before joining the Senators. He has spent the last four winters working as a trainer at rodeos for the Justin Heeler Sports Medicine program. Bill lives in Arlington.

THE 1984 SEASON

Pete finished third on the Rangers with a .287 average, 18 home runs, and 80 runs batted in and accomplished these totals despite missing 16 games in September with bruised ribs. His rbi total was the highest ever by a Texas first baseman, and he was again one of the top fielders in the American League. His batting average represented a 50 point increase over his 1983 rookie season figure of .237.

Batting: Had a good start, batting .315 (17-54) with 12 rbi in his first 18 games thru Apr. 26 . . . Hit just .161 (10-62) with five rbi in his next 19 contests to drop to .233.

At that point had his best streak of the year, batting .369 (73-198) with seven homers and 37 rbi over a 51-game span from May 20 thru July 17 to lift average to .318, fourth in A.L. at that time . . . Hit safely in the first 13 games of that period (May 20-June 3) at .429 (21-49), the longest batting streak by a Ranger in 1984 . . . Shared A.L. "player of the week" honors with Boston's Bruce Hurst for May 22-27, when he hit .590 (13-22) with six doubles and seven rbi in six games.

DID YOU KNOW?

That Frank Howard, who played with the Rangers in 1972, had 10 home runs in 20 times at bat with the Washington Senators in 1968. He started with a home run against Detroit's Mickey Lolich in Washington and ended the hot streak with a home run over the left-field roof at Detroit. Yes, again off Lolich.

THE 1984 SEASON

DETAILED SUMMARY

Final Record: 69-92 (.429)—Seventh in A.L. West, 14½ games behind Kansas City.

Home: 34-46 Road: 35-46 vs. East: 33-50 vs. West: 36-42

ATTENDANCE: The Rangers' 1984 home attendance totaled 1,102,471, the 10th consecutive full season (excluding 1981 strike season) that the ballclub has attracted over a million fans to Arlington Stadium. The largest home crowd of the season was 39,240 on July 4 against New York.

On the road, Texas played before 1,561,739 fans, the second highest road attendance figure in club history, surpassed only by a 1,587,206 figure in 1979. The Rangers' largest away crowd was 51,238 for Detroit's home opener on April 10.

BATTING/HOME RUNS: The Rangers finished ninth in the American League with a team batting average of .261 (1452-for-5569), the club's highest figure for a full season since 1980 (.284). Texas hit .258 (767-for-2968) and scored 336 runs in 87 first half games (3.86 runs per game) while batting at a .263 (685-for-2601) clip with 320 runs scored in 74 games after the all-star break (4.32 runs per game).

At Arlington Stadium, the Rangers had a team batting average of .269 (739-for-2752) and scored 327 runs in 80 games (4.09 runs per game). On the road the club hit .253 (713-for-2817) with 329 runs in 81 contests (4.06 runs per game).

Texas was tenth in the A.L. with 120 home runs, also the club's highest total since 1980 (124). The Rangers hit 57 homers in the first half and connected 63 times in the second half. Fifty-five of the club's homers came at Arlington Stadium, 65 away from home. The Rangers had two grand slams: Larry Parrish May 11 off Chicago's Floyd Bannister at Comiskey Park, and Buddy Bell, Aug. 31 off Milwaukee's Pete Ladd at Arlington Stadium.

In other batting categories, Texas was fifth in sacrifice hits (47), eighth in hits (1452), and 13th in runs scored (656). The club had the fourth fewest strikeouts of any American League team (807).

DESIGNATED HITTERS: Rangers' designated hitters combined for a .272 (173-for-635) average with 17 homers and 81 rbi. That was the third highest team dh average in the league behind Boston (.306) and Kansas City (.305) and a 24 point improvement over the 1983 figure (.248). The 81 rbi by the dh corps matched the second highest figure in team history, topped only in 1980 (97) and equaling the 1977 figure. In other team dh categories, the Rangers were third in hits (173) and tied for fifth in doubles (29).

The majority of the designated hitting chores were performed by Larry Parrish, .263 (64-243), 5 hr, 23 rbi; Mickey Rivers, .285 (53-186), 3 hr, 20 rbi; and George Wright, .353 (24-68), 4 hr, 17 rbi.

DOUBLEHEADERS: Texas participated in only two doubleheaders in 1984, tying Chicago for the fewest in the American League. The Rangers split both twinbills, May 1 at Toronto and June 28 at Cleveland. For the first time in the club's 13 years in Texas, the Rangers did not play a doubleheader at home. The last twinbill at Arlington Stadium occurred on Sep. 8, 1983 against Kansas City.

FIELDING: The Rangers finished tenth in the American League in team fielding with a .977 percentage as they committed 138 errors in 6125 total chances. Texas topped the A.L. with 33 passed balls.

Individuals: Pete O'Brien finished fourth among qualifiers at first base with a .992 percentage (11 errors/1386 total chances). Despite missing 20 games in the field, Pete was third in the league in assists (105) and total chances and fourth in putouts (1270). In his brief Ranger career, O'Brien has a fielding percentage at first base of .992 (20 errors/2651 total chances) in 277 games.

Buddy Bell was fifth among qualifiers at third base with a .958 percentage (20 errors/472 total chances), and he was also among the leaders in double plays (2nd, 28), assists (3rd, 323), total chances (3rd), and putouts (4th, 129). His 20 errors represented his highest total since 1976, when he also had 20 miscues. Buddy's longest errorless game streak was a 30-game span from June 20 thru July 22.

Buddy, who won his sixth consecutive American League Gold Glove for fielding excellence at third base, has a lifetime fielding percentage of .964 (199 errors/5584 total chances) in 1652 games at the hot corner. In six seasons with Texas, Bell's percentage at third is .969 (87 errors/2802 total chances) in 809 contests.

Gary Ward finished seventh among A.L. outfielders in putouts (376) and total chances (392) and led the Rangers with 11 assists. Ward has 56 outfield assists in his four plus seasons in the majors. Mickey Rivers did not commit an error in 52 chances in the outfield and has made just two miscues in 340 chances over the last four seasons (starting 1981).

INJURIES: The Rangers were hindered by a number of injuries in 1984, the most serious of which were sustained by George Wright. The club's "most valuable player" in 1983, Wright appeared in just 101 games in 1984. He injured his right shoulder in a collision with the outfield fence at Chicago on May 11 and sat out 19 of the next 25 games. During that time, Wright suffered a jammed right finger and thumb on June 3, then strained his left knee while sliding into third base on June 9. That problem, diagnosed as a strained medial collateral ligament, forced him to go on the disabled list on June 11. He was assigned to Oklahoma City on "rehabilitation assignment" on July 4 and was reactivated by Texas on July 11 after a total absence of 28 games. Wright then sustained a jammed right shoulder and wrist when he tripped over first base on July 24 and missed nine more games. He did not return to the lineup until August 5 and could not be used in the outfield until August 20.

Three other players spent time on the disabled list. Bill Stein was on the d.l. for two lengthy stints and played in just 27 games all year. He was disabled from May 5 until June 13 with tendinitis in his left wrist and from August 8 until September 1 with a bad back. At the time he was disabled, Bill had not played since July 20, and he appeared in only three games in September because of lingering back problems. Alan Bannister was out from June 27 until July 24 with bruised ribs, and Bobby Jones was disabled from July 19 until August 10 with a pulled rib cage muscle.

Pete O'Brien missed 16 games after sustaining bruised ribs in a collision with Donnie Scott on September 11. Wayne Tolleson was sidelined for nine games after straining his right hamstring muscle on May 17. Dickie Noles did not pitch from August 18 thru 30 due to a sore right shoulder. Dave Schmidt worked just four times in September, none after September 13, because of soreness in his right shoulder. Dave Stewart strained his right shoulder on April 29 and did not pitch again until May 12. Buddy Bell (pulled right calf, strained left knee), Jeff Kunkel (bruise above right eye), Mickey Rivers (strained left leg muscle, bad right calf muscle), and Danny Darwin (sore right elbow) were also bothered with assorted problems.

MONTH-BY-MONTH: April: 8-14 (.364), May: 12-15 (.444), June: 15-15 (.500), July: 10-17 (.370), August: 15-13 (.536), September: 9-18 (.333), Total: 69-92 (.429).

PERFECT GAME: California's Mike Witt became the thirteenth pitcher in big league history to pitch a perfect game when he retired 27 straight Rangers on September 30 at Arlington Stadium. Witt defeated Charlie Hough, 1-0, as Hough allowed just seven hits and one unearned run. It was the majors' first perfect game since Cleveland's Len Barker accomplished the feat against Toronto on May 15, 1981.

It was the first no-hitter pitched at Arlington Stadium since the Rangers moved to Texas prior to the 1972 season. The only other no-hitter against Texas was recorded by Kansas City's Jim Colborn on May 14, 1977, at Kansas City.

PINCH-HITTING: Texas pinch-hitters combined for a .218 (34-for-156) average in 1984, tenth in the A.L. The club was fifth in the circuit with 27 rbi, and the pinch-hit corps produced two home runs: Mickey Rivers, July 25 off Baltimore's Dennis Martinez at Arlington Stadium, and Bobby Jones, September 12 off Seattle's Bob Stoddard at the Kingdome. The Rangers' three busiest pinch-hitters were Rivers, .258 (8-31), 1 hr, 5 rbi; Marv Foley, .250 (7-28), 6 rbi; and Jones, .208 (5-24), 1 hr, 7 rbi. Jones tied for sixth in the A.L. with his seven pinch rbi.

PITCHING: The Rangers finished sixth in the American League with a 3.91 team earned run average, placing behind Detroit (3.49), Baltimore (3.71), New York (3.78), Minnesota (3.85), and Toronto (3.86). The club was fourth in the A.L. in complete games (38), sixth in strikeouts (863), and seventh in fewest hits allowed (1443). Texas hurlers also threw a league high 62 wild pitches, matching the club record established in 1973.

The Rangers' staff compiled a 3.84 earned run average (332 er/779 ip) in 87 games before the all-star break and a 4.00 mark (293 er/659.2 ip) in 74 second half games. At home, the team era was 3.70 (305 er/742 ip) while the figure on the road was 4.13 (320 er/696 ip).

STREAKS, WINNING AND LOSING: Texas won a season high six consecutive games from June 8 thru 13. The club's longest losing streak of the year was seven from April 23 thru May 1.

HITTING FOR THE CYCLE

No Ranger ever has hit for the cycle — a single, double, triple and home run in the same game.

It has been accomplished three times against the Rangers, twice in 1972 and once last year.

On August 29, 1972, in the first game of a doubleheader at New York, Bobby Murcer of the Yankees struck out in the first inning against Mike Paul, then tripled and doubled off Paul. He added a single off Paul Lindblad and a home run off Steve Lawson. New York won, 7-6.

Cesar Tovar, then with Minnesota, achieved the feat on September 19, 1972, at Minnesota. He hit a triple, single and double off Dick Bosman and capped it off with a home run off Paul Lindblad as the Twins won, 5-3.

Cal Ripken, Jr., of Baltimore, is the only player to ever hit for the cycle at Arlington Stadium, getting the job done on May 6, 1984. He flied out to left in the first inning, then tripled off Frank Tanana in the third. Cal singled off Jim Bibby in the fifth, doubled in the seventh and homered in the ninth off Dave Tobik as the Orioles won, 6-1.

THE RANGERS' BIGGEST INNING EVER (12 Runs in 15th Inning at Oakland, July 3, 1983)

Dave Beard walked Bucky Dent. Buddy Bell singled, Dent stopping at second. The runners advanced as Beard tossed out Larry Parrish. George Wright was purposely passed, filling the bases.

Bobby Jones doubled to right, scoring Dent and Bell, Wright stopping at third. Wright scored and Jones took third on a wild pitch. Bobby Johnson walked. Ben Callahan replaced Beard on the mound for Oakland. Larry Biittner singled to center, scoring Jones, Johnson stopping at second. Jim Anderson walked, loading the bases.

Mickey Rivers grounded to Davey Lopes at second base, but Lopes threw the ball into leftfield trying for a force play at second. Biittner and Johnson scored and Anderson went to third. Dent singled to right, scoring Anderson as Rivers scooted from first to third. Bell singled to right-center, scoring Dent and Bell.

Wright flied to left for the second out. Jones doubled for the second time in the inning, scoring Parrish. Johnson singled to right, scoring Jones. Biittner flied to left for the third out.

(16 batters, 12 runs, eight hits, four walks, one error, one wild pitch)

INSIDE-THE-PARK HOME RUNS

Bump Wills is the only Ranger ever to hit an inside-the-park home run at Arlington Stadium, accomplishing it against Baltimore's Jim Palmer on July 30, 1980.

The only other inside-the-park home runs at Arlington Stadium were by Chicago's Pat Kelly on May 22, 1974 (off Fergie Jenkins), by the late Danny Thompson of Minnesota on June 24, 1974 (off David Clyde) and by Lou Whitaker of Detroit on August 24, 1983 (off Victor Cruz).

The Rangers have hit seven insiders on foreign fields. Three of them came in 1977 — Ken Henderson at Chicago on April 30 and Toby Harrah and Wills at New York on August 27. Harrah and Wills hit theirs on successive pitches by Ken Clay.

John Lowenstein hit one at Chicago on June 14, 1978. Wills hit one at Kansas City on July 15, 1979, and George Wright smashed one at Kansas City on September 1, 1982. Both blows at Kansas City were off Paul Splittorff.

The last Ranger to connect was Gary Ward at California on September 22, 1984. The ball eluded rightfielder Juan Beniquez, hit on the chalk, and rolled to the fence as the Angels protested it was a foul ball. Television replays confirmed Umpire Jim McKean's call was correct.

DID YOU KNOW

Fergie Jenkins has been the only Ranger pitcher to bat since the designated hitter rule was adopted in 1973. The Rangers did not use a designated hitter in the final game of the 1974 season at Minnesota. Jenkins batted twice against Jeff Hughes. He struck out and singled.

1 - 0 GAMES

The Rangers have participated in 48 games decided by a 1-0 score, winning 25 and losing 23. There have been 23 different winning pitchers in 1-0 victories over the Rangers.

Bert Blyleven won four 1-0 games with Texas and Fergie Jenkins won three. Jenkins also lost five by that score. Gaylord Perry had a 2-3 record in 1-0 games with Texas. Jim Umbarger, Bill Singer, Doyle Alexander, Jon Matlack, John Butcher and Charlie Hough are other pitchers who went the distance to post 1-0 wins for Texas. Ten games were combined efforts by the Rangers.

The last opposing hurler to record a complete game 1-0 triumph over the Rangers was California's Mike Witt on the final day of the season last year. He did it in sparkling style, pitching a perfect game to nip Hough.

Hough was the last Texas pitcher to go the distance and win a 1-0 game, defeating Kansas City on August 28, 1983.

20-GAME WINNER

Ferguson Jenkins is the only pitcher in the Rangers' 13-year history to win 20 games in a season, accomplishing that feat with a 25-12 record in 1974. Jenkins tied Oakland's Jim Hunter for the major league lead in victories that season. The second highest single season win total in Ranger history was recorded by Jim Bibby, who went 19-19, also in 1974. The club record for victories in a season by a lefthander is 15, set by Jon Matlack in 1978 (15-13) and matched by Frank Tanana in 1984 (15-15).

TRIPLE PLAYS

The Rangers have been involved in six triple plays in their 12 year existence - one by them and five against them.

The only Texas triple play materialized on August 8, 1977, in the second game of a doubleheader with Oakland at Arlington Stadium . . . Roger Moret opened the fifth inning by walking Mitchell Page and Rich McKinney . . . Manny Sanguillen then slapped a grounder to Toby Harrah, who stepped on third base and fired to Bump Wills, who made the force, then relayed to Mike Hargrove at first base . . . The Rangers won 3-0.

The first triple play against the Rangers' came in their first season in Texas, on August 13, 1972, with Kansas City pulling it off under unusual circumstances . . . With Dick Bosman on second base and Elliott Maddox on first, Harrah tapped in front of the plate . . . Catcher Ed Kirkpatrick threw to Paul Schaal for the force on Bosman at third . . . Schaal's throw to Cookie Rojas, covering first base, nailed Harrah . . . When Maddox tried to race from first to third on the play he was out on Rojas' return throw to Schaal . . . The Rangers won, 13-4.

Texas was a three-time victim in 1979 . . . On June 10 at Baltimore, with runners going from first and second bases, Buddy Bell lined sharply to Doug DeCinces and the resulting triple play was a snap . . . Baltimore won, 5-4 . . . On June 23 at Oakland there was mass confusion after John Grubb hit a soft liner at Third Baseman Wayne Gross with runners on first and second . . . The ball was trapped and Third Base Coach Frank Lucchesi waved madly for Oscar Gamble to come on over to third base and for Billy Sample to move from first to second . . . Lo and behold, Umpire Bill Kunkel ruled the ball had been caught on the fly, so Gross attempted to throw to second, only to throw into centerfield . . . Out there Tony Armas retrieved the ball and tossed to Shortstop Dave Chalk for the out at second . . . Then Armas came in, took the ball from Chalk and ran over to first base to catch Sample off for the third out . . . Thus, the centerfielder got an assist and a putout on a triple play . . . Texas won anyway, 8-5.

There was another dilly at Arlington Stadium on July 28 against Boston . . . Grubb was on third base and Bell on first when Al Oliver hit a looper to right . . . It seemed impossible that the ball would be fielded, so both runners took off . . . Jack Brohamer, Red Sox second baseman, made the impossible play, sprawling to achieve the grab . . . He recovered and threw to First Baseman Bob Watson, who then fired to Butch Hobson at third . . . Too bad, for Dennis Eckersley carried on to defeat Fergie Jenkins, 1-0.

Then on May 22, 1981, at Seattle, John Grubb and Pat Putnam walked. On a hit-and-run Mario Mendoza lined to Shortstop Rick Auerbach, who stepped on second to nail Grubb, then threw to Bruce Bochte at first base to catch Putnam. The Rangers won, 6-2.

In 1972 Infielder Toby Harrah was named to the squad as a replacement for injured Luis Aparicio, but Harrah was injured and replaced by Bobby Grich.

NOTES: Buddy Bell was the Rangers' lone representative on the 1984 American League All-Star Team as the Texas third baseman earned his fourth All-Star selection in the last five years and fifth overall. He played the final three innings at third base and was 0-for-1 at the plate.

Three Ranger players have been elected by vote of baseball fans to start in an All-Star Game: outfielder Jeff Burroughs in 1974, shortstop Toby Harrah in 1976, and outfielder Richie Zisk in 1978. Jim Kern was a 7-6 loser in relief in the 1979 mid-summer classic at Seattle, allowing two hits and two runs in 2.2 innings.

In addition, three Texas managers have been selected as a coach for the A.L. squad: Whitey Herzog in 1973, Billy Martin in 1975, and Pat Corrales in 1979.

RANGERS DRAFT BOTH NCAA AND NAIA "PLAYERS OF THE YEAR" IN JUNE, 1984 DRAFT

The Rangers enjoy the distinction of having both the NCAA and NAIA "player of the year" for 1984 among the players in its organization. Outfielder ODDIBE McDOWELL, Texas' first round selection in last June's draft, was named the National Collegiate Athletic Association's "player of the year" by both Baseball America and Collegiate Baseball after earning All-American honors at Arizona State University. McDowell, a member of the U.S. Olympic team, also won the Golden Spikes Award, presented annually by the United States Baseball Federation to the top amateur baseball player in America.

Outfielder ROB AMBLE, the Rangers' 25th round pick in the June, 1984 draft, was selected as "player of the year" by the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics after leading Azusa Pacific College to the NAIA championship. He was also a finalist for the Golden Spikes Award.

Outfielder RONNIE KING was the league's batting champion with a .370 average, and King, the Rangers' 32nd round selection in the June, 1984 draft, also led the circuit in slugging (.506) and on-base percentage (.516).
